

Essential Questions	Concept	Objectives
What is air pollution?	Air Pollution is when harmful stuff is in the air.	To know what air pollution is.
Can air pollution harm humans?	Air pollution can harm humans. They can breathe in the harmful stuff in the air. They can get asthma, allergies, and a bad cold.	To know what air pollution can do to humans.
Is there air pollution in Sand Point?	Yes, there is air pollution everywhere! Although, Sand Point isn't as bad as other places.	To understand there is air pollution in Sand Point, but there are other places that have it worse.
Identify at least one source of air pollution in Sand Point.	There are many sources of air pollution in Sand Point. They are Road Dust, Smoke from anything burning, chemicals in the air, vehicle exhaust	To identify at least one source of air pollution
What is Smog?	Smog is the mixture of smoke and fog coming from exhaust, businesses, burning of anything.	To know what Smog is.
Identify what we can do to reduce air pollution.	We can walk, or ride a bicycle, instead of drive, recycle more so there isn't so much in the landfill to burn, don't contribute to air pollution by making a fire.	To know how to reduce air pollution.