

YOUTH LEADERSHIP

AASB's 23rd Annual YOUTH LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE November 7-10, 2013 Anchorage, AK

What is the Youth Leadership Institute?

YLI is a hands-on training experience designed for Alaska High School Students who have never attended a leadership training and who aspire to be leaders in their schools and communities.

Participants will:

- Learn and practice leadership skills
- Participate in various hands-on activities
- Commit to using leadership skills in their communities
- Connect with emerging young leaders from across the state
- Join in conversations and sessions with school board members

Who Should Attend?

- High School Students, especially sophomores and juniors.
- Students interested in developing leadership skills
- Students who never attended leadership training
- Students willing to practice skills from the institute in their schools and communities

If you or a student you know would like to attend, talk to your School Board. For more information about YLI, visit www.aasb.org or call (907) 463-1660.

All youth participants under 18 years of age are required to have an adult chaperone. Chaperones are responsible for youth participant outside of session hours.

Districts are encouraged to send students who have not attended an AASB Youth Leadership event in the past.
